abi ferrin

After making her name with collections of wildly popular printed silk blouses and cocktail dresses, 30-year-old designer Abi Ferrin was ready for a change. "I really wanted to try light, layerable knits that were super-stylish," she says. Ferrin's expanded fall collection ($50 to $2,500) is packed with dramatic wool tops and capelets, in a smoldering palette. Available at The Revolving Door (1409 S. Lamar St., Ste. 103, 214-565-0055).
