Texas' Next Top Designer and Lawyers Against Domestic Violence Auction

Watch out, Project Runway! The Dallas Fashion Incubator and Stanley Korshak, in conjunction with TRIBEZA, launched the second annual Search for Texas' Next Top Designer at Victory Park. The fashionable partygoers were privy to an exclusive runway show featuring last year's winner, Abi Ferrin. The two-month-long search started with kickoff parties in Dallas, Houston, and Austin, followed by preliminary judging in all three cities and finals in Dallas. This year's winner will be announced in Dallas on November 10. photography by carter rose

The Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (DAYL), in conjunction with IKON, hosted the Lawyers Against Domestic Violence Auction at the ever-popular Fuse. In just two hours the auction raised more than $11,000 for Hope's Door, a full-service shelter and counseling center for families affected by domestic violence.
